The personal data collected is essential for the schools to fulfil their official functions and meet legal requirements. We use this personal data to:

- support learning
- monitor and report on progress
- provide appropriate pastoral care
- assess the quality of our services
- keep children safe (emergency contacts, food allergies)

This information will include contact details, national curriculum assessment results, attendance information, any exclusion information, destination (where students go after they leave us) and personal characteristics such as ethnic group, any special educational needs as well as relevant medical information. We will also use photographs of students in accordance with the permissions indicated by parents/students on the student registration form.

For students enrolling for post 14 qualifications, the Learning Records Service will give us the unique learner number (ULN) and may also give us details about your learning or qualifications.

OUR LAWFUL BASIS FOR USING THIS DATA

Under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the lawful bases we rely on for processing student information are:

- The Greenshaw Learning Trust is under a legal obligation to collect the information or the information is necessary for us to meet legal requirements imposed upon us such as our duty to safeguard students.
- It is necessary for us to hold and use this information for the purposes of our functions in providing schooling and so we can look after our students. This is a function which is in the public interest because everybody needs to have an education. This means we have real and proper reasons to use your information.
- We will not usually need your consent to use your child's information. However, if at any time it appears to us that we would like to use the personal data in a way which means that we would need your consent or your child's consent then we will explain to you what we want to do and ask you for this consent. This is most likely to be where we are involved in activities which are not really part of our job as a Trust but we are involved because we think it would benefit our students. If you give your consent, you may change your mind at any time. If we think that your child will not understand what we are asking then we will ask you instead. Usually, we will involve parents even if we feel the child can make their own decision.

HOW WE COLLECT AND STORE THIS DATA

We collect student information via student registration forms and Common Transfer Files (from the Local Authority or previous schools attended) through secure file transfer.

Student data is essential for the schools' operational use. Whilst the majority of student information provided is mandatory, some of it is requested on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the data protection legislation, we will make it clear at the point of collection whether there is a legal requirement for you to provide it, whether there is a legal requirement on the Trust to collect it. If there is no legal requirement then we will explain why we need it and what the consequences are if it is not provided and what you need to do if you do not want to share this information with us.

Personal data is stored in line with our Data Retention Policy. A copy of this is available on the GLT website. We maintain a visitor management system to store personal information about all visitors. The information contained in this file is kept secure and is only used for purposes directly relevant to work with the school.

When this information is no longer required, we will delete your information in accordance with our Data Retention Policy.

Greenshaw Learning Trust can use your information as part of an automated (i.e. electronically operated) recognition system. This is to allow access to the cashless catering system. The information that is used is referred to as 'biometric information'. This data will only be processed once we have obtained appropriate consent. Why we regularly share student information

We do not share information about our students with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

It is in the vital interest of our students for personal information to be shared with the services listed above. All data is transferred securely.

Before students are old enough to understand we will ask parents to consent. We will ask for students to consent once they reach the age of 13. This is because the law requires us to ask students if they can understand. Normally, we involve parents too.

Youth Support Services

Once our students reach the age of 13, we also pass student information to our local authority and/or the provider of Youth Support Services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- Youth Support Services
- Career Advisers

A parent or guardian can object to any information in addition to their child's name, address and date of birth being passed to their local authority or provider of Youth Support Services by informing us. This right is transferred to the student once they reach the age of 16.

Data is securely transferred to the Youth Support Service.

Please see the Surrey County Council Privacy Notice for more details about how data is stored and how long it is held for: Services for Schools Portal – Privacy Notice

Students aged 16+

We will also share certain information about pupils aged 16+ with our local authority and / or provider of Youth Support Services as they have responsibilities in relation to the education or training of 13-19 year olds under section 507B of the Education Act 1996.

This enables them to provide services as follows:

- post-16 education and training providers
- Youth Support Services
- Careers Advisers

A student once they reach the age of 16 can object to only their name, address and date of birth being passed to their local authority or provider of Youth Support Services by informing us.

Data is securely transferred to the Youth Support Service. For more information about services for young people, please visit our local authority website.

Automated Decision Making

Automated decision making takes place when an electronic system uses personal information to make a decision without human intervention. We are allowed to use automated decision making in limited circumstances.

Students will not be subject to automated decision-making, unless we have a lawful basis for doing so and we have notified you.

Department for Education

All data is transferred securely and held by DfE under a combination of software and hardware controls, which meet the current government security policy framework.

For more information, please see 'How Government uses your data' section.

Local Authorities

We may be required to share information about our students with the local authority to ensure that they can conduct their statutory duties under

- the Schools Admission Code, including conducting Fair Access Panels.

RIGHT OF ACCESS, CORRECTION, ERASURE AND RESTRICTION

Under GDPR, parents and students have the right to request access to information about them that we hold. If you want to request information, please see our Subject Access Request Procedures, for the procedures we take. If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, you should raise your concern with us in the first instance or directly to the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/concerns/>

For further information on how to request access to personal information held centrally by DfE, please see the 'How Government uses your data' section of this notice.

We have put in place measures to protect the security of your information (i.e. against it being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way). In addition, we limit access to your personal information to those third parties who have a business need to know.

You can find further details of our security procedures within our Data Breach Procedure and our Cyber Security Procedure, which can be found on the GLT website.

It is important that the personal information we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal information changes during your working relationship with us.

RIGHT TO WITHDRAW CONSENT

In the limited circumstances where you may have provided your consent to the collection, processing, and transfer of your personal information for a specific purpose, you have the right to withdraw your consent for that specific processing at any time. To withdraw your consent, please contact Faye Rose, Data Officer. Once we have received notification that you have withdrawn your consent, we will no longer process your information for the purpose or purposes you originally agreed to, unless we have another legitimate basis for doing so in law.

We hope that Faye Rose can resolve any query you raise about our use of your information in the first instance.

How Government uses your data

The student data that we lawfully share with the DfE through data collections:

- underpins school funding, which is calculated based upon the numbers of children and their characteristics in each school.

- informs 'short term' education policy monitoring and school accountability and intervention (for example, school GCSE results or Pupil Progress measures).
- supports 'longer term' research and monitoring of educational policy (for example how certain subject choices go on to affect education or earnings beyond school)

The National Pupil Database (NPD)

Much of the data about pupils in England goes on to be held in the National Pupil Database (NPD).

The NPD is owned and managed by the Department for Education and contains information about pupils in schools in England. It provides invaluable evidence on educational performance to inform independent research, as well as studies commissioned by the department.

It is held in electronic format for statistical purposes. This information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and awarding bodies.

To find out more about the NPD, go to

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/national-pupil-database-user-guide-and-supporting-information>

Sharing by the Department for Education

The law allows the Department to share pupils' personal data with certain third parties, including:

- schools
- local authorities
- researchers
- organisations connected with promoting the education or wellbeing of children in England
- other government departments and agencies

For more information about the Department's NPD data sharing process, please visit:

<https://www.gov.uk/data-protection-how-we-collect-and-share-research-data>

Organisations fighting or identifying crime may use their legal powers to contact DfE to request access to individual level information relevant to detecting that crime. Whilst numbers fluctuate slightly over time, DfE typically supplies data on around 600 pupils per year to the Home Office and roughly 1 per year to the Police.

For information about which organisations the Department has provided pupil information, (and for which project) or to access a monthly breakdown of data share volumes with Home Office and the Police please visit the following website:
